

Operative terms of Rapid Loans NZ Limited Loan Contract

You the borrowers acknowledge the debt to the lender of the initial unpaid balance and agree:

- 1 Words of example or inclusion are not words of limitation or exclusion. In this agreement we sometimes give an example of how a rule or statement may apply or an example of a possible meaning of a word. Our giving of that example does not mean that the rule or statement or word has to be interpreted or explained in the same manner as is the example. If we say a word includes a meaning, that word may have other meanings as well.
- 2 You give a security interest in collateral you own. If you own any collateral (see paragraph 38 below Meaning) then this paragraph 2 applies to you.
 - a. You grant to us a security interest over that collateral. That means your goods (such as a motor car) and other personal property shown as collateral are security for payment of the unpaid balance. You are charging them with the money you owe.
 - b. The security interests are to secure payment to us of the unpaid balance and also to secure your performance of all other terms of this agreement. For example, if you default in making payments when they are due, the lender may seize certain collateral (for example, repossess your goods) and sell it to pay the unpaid balance or overdue amount. (See paragraph 29 below of these Operative terms.)
 - c. If you default we may also apply to the Court for an order that any or all of your collateral be seized and sold.
 - d. You promise to us that nobody else has the right to repossess and sell the collateral and nobody else owns it unless you have told the lender in writing before you signed this agreement.
 - e. You must not grant any security interest over the collateral to anybody else and we may accelerate payment of the unpaid balance if you do so.
- 3 Consent to electronic communications. You and the lender consent to using, providing and accepting information in electronic form and the parties agree that the Electronic Transactions Act 2002 applies.
- 4 How the lender gives you documents and tells you anything.
 - a. Subject to sections 352 to 359 of the Property Law Act 2007 (which creates some rules for telling borrowers information about collateral goods which are not consumer goods) if we wish to serve any legal paper on you – if we wish to give anything to you in writing – that legal paper will be sufficiently served or given if:
 - (i) We deliver it to you; or
 - (ii) We leave it at your usual or last known home address, place of business or of work or at a service address you give us in this agreement so we can give legal paper to you; or
 - (iii) We post it to you in a letter addressed to you by name at your home, place of business or of work, or service address; or
 - (iv) We send it to you by an electronic communication (such as email, fax, Facebook, Skype) although we cannot give you a repossession warning notice or a post-repossession notice in this manner.
 - (v) For any disclosure in relation to this agreement we send it to you by email or provide a link to our website.

- b. If you are out of New Zealand, the legal paper may be served on or given to your agent in New Zealand if you appoint one.
- c. If you are dead, the legal paper may be served on or given to your personal representatives – the people in charge of your estate when you die.
- d. If the legal paper is sent to you –
 - (i) by post, it is to be treated as if you received it (got it) on the fourth working day after the day on which the letter is posted (and to prove delivery all we need to do is prove that the letter was properly addressed and posted):
 - (ii) by electronic communication, it is to be treated as if you received it (got it) on the second working day after the day on which the legal paper is sent.
- e. Despite anything in this paragraph 4, the court may in any case make an order saying how any legal paper is to be served on or given to you. The court may also order that we do not need to give you the legal paper. If we go to court for an order about how you are to be given a legal papers or how we are to tell you about them, you agree that legal papers may be served on you at the last address that the lender has for you as notified by you.
- f. In addition, a legal paper will be sufficiently served or given if it is:
 - (i) handed to any person who appears to live at any home address of any borrower; or
 - (ii) attached to an outside door at either address.
- g. Further, if your address is a flat or apartment or room (your flat) in a building and if we are unable to get into the building or get to your flat because of the security system of the building or for some other reason, then a legal paper will be sufficiently served or given to you if it is posted at an outside letterbox for your flat.
- h. If there is no such letterbox, a legal paper will be sufficiently served or given to you if it is clearly addressed to you and attached to what appears to be the main outside door to the building for your flat or if the legal paper is given to any building manager or receptionist for the building and the manager or receptionist is asked to give it to you.
- i. Further,
 - (i) if you have given an email address or a facsimile number or a mobile phone number at any time; or
 - (ii) if you have a public address, including an internet social media address or an address at any other internet communication system or talking-place (for example, Facebook or Skype), that address or number shall be an information system specified by you for the purpose of service and general communication. That means we may communicate with you in any way that we can on the Internet.

5 You are not released from liability just because somebody else is. Somebody else may be a borrower under this agreement as well as you. If that person is found not to be liable for any reason, that reason does not release you from being liable to pay or perform your obligations. That means that even if we cannot enforce this agreement against somebody else, we may still enforce it against you.

6 Everything you have told the lender must be true. You promise that all information provided by you or on your behalf to enable us to decide whether or not to lend to you is true and correct and if it is not true and correct we may demand payment of the unpaid balance of the loan and you must pay forthwith (straight away) on such demand.

7 New Zealand law applies. This agreement is governed by New Zealand law and you and we agree that the New Zealand courts may rule on any disputes. If you want to dispute or argue with us in relation to or in connection with this agreement, you may do so only before a New Zealand court or Disputes Tribunal or before our dispute resolution provider in New Zealand. However, we may enforce:

- a. this agreement against you; or
- b. any judgment against you or against your real and personal property, in any country where you or that property may be.

- 8 You must make all payments in full when due. You must pay all amounts shown in the PAYMENTS schedule of the Disclosure Statement when they are due.
- a. You must make all payments without any deduction or withholding for any purpose whether by way of set-off counter-claim or otherwise and in such manner as we require.
 - b. That means if you believe we owe you a debt of money or if you have any sort of claim against us, you must not take off:
 - (i) any part of that debt; or
 - (ii) any of the amount you claim we owe you,from your payment of any instalment or other amount under this agreement. Also we may tell you how you must pay us.
 - c. If we require, you must allow us to directly debit your bank account or you must set up automatic payments. We may also use any direct debit authority to pay ourselves any instalment or credit or default fee or default interest. That means you must allow us to take money from your bank account.
- 9 You must pay the lender all interest (including default interest) and credit fees and default fees. You must pay to us as soon as we ask or when they are otherwise due and in any event we may charge against your account with us:
- a. the credit fees shown in the “CREDIT FEES AND CHARGES” section of the Disclosure Statement; and
 - b. any early repayment fee provided for in the FULL PREPAYMENT section of the Disclosure Statement and any part repayment fee charged; and
 - c. the default fees and default interest shown in the “WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS - default interest charges and default fees” section of the Disclosure Statement; and
 - d. all of our costs which we may suffer or have to pay in connection with:
 - (i) Any variation and release of this agreement or any Personal Property Securities Act financing statement in relation to this agreement not provided for in the disclosure. For example if you ask us for to agree to your selling a collateral motor car and replacing it with another, we may charge you the cost of our dealing with it;
 - (ii) If you are in default the transfer of the security interest of any other secured party to us or our security interest to another secured party;
 - (iii) Our doing anything you should have done but you have not done;
 - (iv) If you (or any person on your behalf) make a demand under section 162 of the PPSA without justification, our obtaining of an order under section 167 of that Act. Section 162 allows you to demand that we change or remove the financing statement that shows we have a registered security interest in collateral. If you wrongly demand that we change or remove the statement, we will charge you the cost of going to court to protect it;and you agree that amounts referred to in this paragraph 9 will become part of the unpaid balance and that they are contractual damages if they become chargeable to you as a result of your default under this agreement. This means that you agree to pay the costs in this paragraph and you may not argue about them as long as the lender proves the amounts.
- 10 Our costs referred to in paragraph 9 include:
- a. Our own internal administration fees; and
 - b. Expenses and any other liabilities we do not now know about. These include legal expenses on a solicitor and own client and on a full indemnity basis. That last sentence means that we may recover from you the full costs which our own lawyers charge to us if we instruct a lawyer as part of enforcing this agreement against you.
- 11 Default Interest and Default fees. If you are in financial default you must pay us default interest:

- a. If you are in financial default you must pay us default interest on any overdue instalment or other overdue amount at the rate shown in the “Default interest charges and default fees” section of the Disclosure Statement. You must pay default interest from the date you fall into financial default until you are no longer in financial default. However, we will not charge default interest on any part of the unpaid balance after we have accelerated payment of that part unless payment of that part has fallen due by the time of the charge without the acceleration.
- b. If you are in any default at all you must pay default fees. You must pay default fees from when you fall into any default until you cease that default.
- c. We may debit all default interest and default fees as set out in the “Default interest charges and default fees” section of the Disclosure Statement and they will become part of the unpaid balance. You must continue to pay default interest and credit fees and default fees after judgment or order against you. That means you must keep paying them after we sue you in court or in the Disputes Tribunal for the unpaid balance and obtain an order that you must pay.
- d. Your obligation to pay ordinary and default interest and credit and default fees is subject to section 83M of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act which prevents us from charging any costs at all or any interest at all on any part of the unpaid balance after we have sold consumer goods collateral.

12 Employer authorisation for deduction from wages

In the unfortunate event of a default, and as an alternative or supplementary to other recovery action, Rapid Loans may choose to exercise its right to seek employer deductions from the consumer’s wages to repay the loan, entirely at its discretion. This right to be exercised after reasonable attempts by Rapid Loans to contact the consumer to seek repayment, and/or to inform the consumer of the intention to present the Authority and Request for deduction of wages form, signed by the consumer/employee for such purpose.

The Authority and Request for deduction of wages form may be used at any time during the loan term but, to avoid any double payment, deductions from wages will only apply to any period where direct debit payments or automatic payments are not being received by Rapid Loans.

13 Subject to section 128 of the Property Law Act 2007 (which in some cases requires a legal document about collateral goods which are not consumer goods to be sent) we may accelerate repayment of the loan and require you to pay the unpaid balance to us straight away (forthwith) if:

- a. Any goods included in the collateral are at risk;
- b. You breach paragraph 2e or 6 above or paragraph 19, 23, or 24 below of these Operative terms;
- c. You breach paragraphs 21a to 21h below of these Operative terms;
- d. You fail to pay any money for 5 working days after it is due or if you continue any other default for 9 working days after the posting of any notice of that default to you (or 5 working days if such notice is sent by electronic means).
- e. We may call up that money even although the time for payment has not yet been reached.

14 If you disappear time will not run on your debt until we locate you again in New Zealand or in Australia.

Pursuant to section 41 of the Limitation Act 2010, if you change your physical address without notifying us and:

- a. you are then in default or subsequently fall into default; and
 - i. we are unable to locate you; or
 - ii. you live (whether permanently or not) in any other country, and
- b. we subsequently locate you in New Zealand or in Australia, the limitation period shall begin on the date that we locate you in New Zealand or in Australia to the effect that that date will be:

- c. the start date (under section 16(1) of the Limitation Act) for any claim we may make against you for interest accrued during the period from the time you change your address or leave New Zealand (whichever is the earlier if both apply); and
- d. deemed to be the date of the act or omission on which the claim is based (under section 11 of the Limitation Act) with respect to default in repaying any principal repayments or parts of the unpaid balance which have fallen due from the time you change your address or leave New Zealand (whichever is the earlier if both apply).

(WHAT DOES PARAGRAPH 14 MEAN? Paragraph 14 of these Operative terms is intended to prevent you from taking advantage of a gap in time in order not to pay. The Limitation Act states that generally if we do not sue you for unpaid interest or unpaid principal for 6 years after the interest or the principal amount falls due, then we lose our right to sue you for the debt. Section 41 allows us to agree that the 6 years does not run until another date. In this case, if you disappear and we cannot locate you but we find you again in New Zealand or in Australia, the six years will run from the time we locate you here or in Australia.)

- 15 The lender may set-off any debt to you. If you have a claim against us or if we owe you money, we may set-off that claim or debt against any claim we have against you or any debt you may owe to us. This means we may reduce any amount we owe you by any amount that you owe us.
- 16 You may repay your loan early. You may repay the unpaid balance of your loan in full before it is due. However you must also pay us:
 - a. the administrative costs of the full prepayment; or
 - b. a charge equal to our average administrative costs of the full prepayment.
- 17 You must always keep us up to date with your name, home and email address and phone numbers. You must not change your name, physical residential (home) address or email address, or your landline or cellular telephone number without first giving us two working days written notice of your intention to do so. You must at the same time provide us with the replacement name, home or email address or landline or cellular telephone number. We may write to you at the address last notified to us.
- 18 You must always be able to pay your debts when they fall due. You will breach this agreement and we may accelerate payment of the unpaid balance if you commit any act of bankruptcy, enter into the No Asset Procedure or without the lender's consent become subject to a Summary Instalment Order. ["Bankruptcy" and "No Asset Procedure" and "Summary Instalment Order" are all ways in which you might not have to pay us in the way that this agreement says you must. If any of them apply to you we will be able to call up payment of the loan.]
- 19 You may not impose any part payment settlement on us and you must not attempt to do so. If you:
 - a. send us a cheque; or
 - b. in any way pay us money,that is less than the unpaid balance and you claim or wish to claim that our
 - c. banking the cheque; or
 - d. accepting the money,settles payment of the unpaid balance in full, we will not be bound by your claim unless we have agreed to that settlement in writing before you sent the cheque or paid the money. This means that (unless we agree in writing in advance) you cannot pay us less than you owe us and claim that that payment means you do not have to pay any more. That will apply even if you tell us in advance that we can only accept the payment you are going to make if it clears your debt. You must not try to compel us to settle for less than you owe in such a way and we may accelerate payment of the unpaid balance if you do.
- 20 Only written changes to this agreement are binding. We are not bound by any change to this agreement unless it is in writing and agreed to by us. We may enforce any of your obligations at any time, even if we have previously delayed enforcement, unless we tell you differently in writing. If you believe we have agreed not to enforce in some way, you must show that we have agreed to that in writing. If we agree once not to enforce an obligation, it does not mean we will agree again or continuously unless we tell you so in writing. If we agree not to enforce one obligation, it does not mean we agree not to enforce another.

Security Interest in Collateral

- 21 How you must store and care for and use collateral goods and protect the lender's interest in them.
- a. Subject to b below you must keep any collateral which is goods you own at your home address above or at the most recent address provided by you under paragraph 17.
 - b. However, you may keep collateral goods other than where you live, if you tell us in writing in advance what the other address is but you must not allow any collateral to be taken out of New Zealand.
 - c. However, you must not change where you keep any collateral goods while you are in default without the lender's prior written consent to the new address.
 - d. You must obey any laws about owning and using collateral goods and you must not use them in any dangerous or illegal activity nor for any purpose for which they are not intended.
 - e. You must make sure that any collateral motor vehicle at all times is registered and not only has a warrant of fitness but is in a condition that will enable a warrant of fitness to be issued for it. You must make sure the vehicle is always able to get a warrant of fitness.
 - f. You must not use any collateral motor vehicle or motor boat for motor sport activity such as racing, rallying, speed or time trials or (and in particular) so that any driver or owner of a collateral motor vehicle receives a written caution under section 129B of the Sentencing Act 2002 or any equivalent legislation.
 - g. You must not:
 - (i) drive any collateral motor vehicle when:
 - (1) you do not hold a driver's licence; or
 - (2) you are disqualified from driving; or
 - (3) you have a breath or blood alcohol level beyond any legal limit nor,
 - (ii) allow any other person to drive when unlicensed or disqualified or with illegal breath or blood alcohol level.
 - h. You must not:
 - (i) do anything or allow anything which may damage, weaken or challenge our security interest in collateral or any registration of that collateral on the Personal Property Securities Register;
 - (ii) make any unjustified application under section 162 of the PPSA. (See paragraph 9d(iv) above);
 - (iii) grant any other security interest over collateral nor allow any workman's lien to be created over it nor dispose of nor allow the disposal of collateral by sale or gift or lease or in any other way nor cause nor allow collateral to be taken out of the possession of the borrower who owns it, nor destroyed, damaged, endangered, disassembled, removed from the place where you are required to keep it nor concealed from the lender. (See meaning of "at risk" in paragraph 38 below);
 - (iv) obtain any personalised registration plate on any collateral motor vehicle nor otherwise change or remove any collateral goods part number or serial number unless we first agree in writing. In any event, if any of these things happen you must tell us straight away in writing.
 - i. You must also care for and maintain collateral goods in good condition from the time you sign this agreement. If any collateral is a motor vehicle you must repair (fix up) damage to panels, bumpers, lights, windows and other outside and inside surfaces and to paint work. This means you must look after any collateral goods properly and if they are a motor vehicle you must fix up any damage to any of these parts of the motor vehicle inside and out, including painting.
- 22 The lender may inspect any collateral goods on giving 24 hours written notice. We may come and inspect (look at) collateral goods if we tell you 24 hours in advance. You must show the goods to us at your home or at the other place you have told us you are keeping them. If collateral goods are at risk we do not have to tell you in advance and we may enter any place where we believe the goods may be to look for and inspect them.

- 23 Replacement goods become part of the collateral.
- a. Any replacement for collateral goods shall become part of the collateral. You must tell us about any replacement as soon as you obtain it and you must describe it to us and also give us any serial numbers and part numbers on it so that we know about it. If you do not tell us about any replacement, we may accelerate payment of the unpaid balance.
 - b. Goods acquired by the consumer after the commencement of this contract and which the consumer attaches in any manner to the good that is the security under this contract (collateral), shall be considered part of the collateral good, unless they can be unattached without causing any damage to the original collateral good
- 24 You must insure the collateral.
- a. You must insure or arrange the insurance of collateral goods to their full insurable value and keep them insured against fire, accident, theft, flood, earthquake and storm and any other risks as we may require. This means that you must insure against these things and you must insure for as much as the insurance company will allow you to.
 - b. The insurance policy must be in the names of the lender (us) and in the names of the owners for the lender's and the owners' respective interests. That means you must make sure with the insurer that the insurance policy shows that we have a security interest in the goods.
 - c. The insurance policy must say that all payments, in the event of a claim, will be made to us.
 - d. Insurance must be with an insurer licensed under the Insurance (Prudential Supervision) Act 2010 or any Act in replacement but subject to that you may insure with whoever you wish.
 - e. You must not do or allow anything which may cause the insurer to refuse payment. For example, you must tell the truth when you apply for the insurance and when you make the claim.
 - f. You must provide us with receipts for the insurance premiums and an insurance company certificate of the insurance if we ask you for them.
 - g. We may use the insurance money to repay any of the unpaid balance even though it or part of it has not yet fallen due.
- 25 Lender may remedy your default at your cost. If you fail to do anything which you must do or if you do anything you must not do, we may do or pay anything to remedy the default (to make it right). If we do that we may add the cost of doing or paying to the unpaid balance. That includes work that we may carry out on goods we have repossessed in order to make them more saleable or to carry out maintenance which you should have carried out.
- 26 You must compensate the lender if anyone makes a claim against the collateral. If in relation to the collateral you:
- a. do anything or allow anything; or
 - b. neglect or fail to do anything; and
- someone claims against you as a result of (a) or (b) and we lose any money or have to spend money, then you must pay the amount of that money to us and we may add it to the unpaid balance.
- 27 Your unpaid balance, meaning what is currently due and payable, could include the following: any amount of principal due for payment, any interest due for payment, any fees due for payment, plus the costs described in clauses 23 and 24 above.
- 28 This agreement may be enforced by an assignee. We may give or assign our rights under this agreement to somebody else ("assignee"). If we do that, this agreement (including the power of attorney) will apply to the assignee as if the assignee were the lender. The assignee may enforce this agreement against you. You have no right to assign rights under this agreement.
- 29 The Lender may repossess and sell personal property on default. If you default under this agreement:

- a. Subject to the requirement to give you a repossession warning notice and then giving you at least 15 days to remedy the default, we may repossess your collateral. We may not repossess consumer goods which are not identified by item and kind in the Disclosure Statement unless those consumer goods are replacements for specifically identified consumer goods,. When we have the right to repossess:
 - (i) We may enter any premises (any land) to look for and repossess collateral;
 - (ii) You must not do anything to prevent or hinder us from repossessing goods. You must keep out of the way when we are repossessing goods;
 - (iii) We may move or use your goods to gain access to or remove collateral;
 - (iv) If your property is damaged when we repossess or try to repossess goods, we do not have to pay you compensation (the cost of the damage);
 - (v) If the property of someone else is reasonably, unavoidably and unintentionally damaged when we repossess or try to repossess goods, we do not have to pay you compensation and if we must pay that person, we may recover that compensation from you. For example, if you hide collateral goods in a building and we break down a door to find them and to repossess them you must pay the cost of any repair of the door, even if the door belongs to someone else;
 - (vi) We may sell the collateral by auction or by private sale or otherwise. At auction, in accordance with Section 83Z(3) Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, Rapid Loans may buy the collateral ourselves, give credit and allow payment over time as if we were the owner and nobody else had any rights;
 - (vii) You must do everything necessary to help with the sale and that includes signing any documents needed or helpful or desirable.
- b. When we sell the collateral:
 - (i) Any buyer of the collateral need show only our receipt to prove he has paid the sale price; and
 - (ii) The buyer need not investigate or question the propriety or regularity of the sale to the buyer and the buyer is not to be affected by any notice express or constructive that such sale is improper or irregular. This means that the buyer is not affected and does not need to worry if he learns anything about the sale process (how we sold) or our right to sell and he does not need to ask.

30 Use of purchased property in trade. The Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 shall not apply if the initial unpaid balance is applied in trade and the borrower is in trade. This means generally that you do not have warranties and protections under that Act if you are in business and the loan is used for business purposes.

31 The lender shall not be obliged to marshal in your favour or in favour of any other person. If we have security over more than one item of personal property, we do not have to sell one item of property before another.

32 You waive your right to a verification statement. You waive your right to receive a verification statement following registration of any security interest. This means that when we register our security interest against collateral, we do not need to provide you with a copy of the statement that the Personal Property Securities Registry then sends us about the registration.

33 Powers and rights you give the lender are irrevocable. In this loan agreement you:

- a. give us powers and rights; and
- b. undertake obligations; and
- c. agree to certain rules of procedure; and
- d. give consents and authorities.

You may not change your mind and withdraw or cancel our rights and powers nor cancel any obligation nor change procedures nor withdraw consents or authorities until (subject to paragraph 37 of these Operative terms) the unpaid balance has been paid in full, subject to you cancelling the contract and, on the date of cancellation, paying all of the amount due and payable to that date, plus the balance of the loan principal due for repayment under the contract at a later date, or on a series of later dates.

- 34 As this contract may provide, the lender may pay a vendor or another lender directly with borrowed money. If you are borrowing money from us in order to buy property, whether or not we take a security interest over that property, or to repay a loan
- a. We may pay the money directly to the supplier of that property or to the other lender; and
 - b. We may impose any conditions on the payment or on the use of the money that we believe are necessary to protect our security interest or to comply with responsible lending requirements.

- 35 You must pay the lender any money it receives from somebody else which it has to repay.
If:

- a. somebody other than you pays any amount due under this agreement; and
- b. that other person becomes bankrupt or goes into liquidation; and
- c. the Official Assignee (“OA”) cancels the payment as an insolvent transaction under section 194 of the Insolvency Act 2006 or the liquidator sets aside the payment as an insolvent transaction under section 292 of the Companies Act 1993 or the transaction is otherwise set aside as a voidable preference, then we may repay that sum to the OA or the liquidator and upon demand you must pay us that sum plus interest from the date we pay the OA or the liquidator. You must pay us even if you believe that we should have tried to avoid paying the money back or disputed payment in some way. This means that, for example,

- d. if another borrower pays us; or
- e. if you arrange for a friend to make payments to us on your behalf; and the other borrower becomes bankrupt or your friend goes bankrupt, the OA may claim back from us the payments the other borrower or your friend has made going back for up to two years before the bankruptcy. If that happens we will be able to recover the total of those payments from you. We do not have to argue with the OA about whether or not we should repay the money. Similar rules will apply if a company pays on your behalf and the company then goes into liquidation.

- 36 All your obligations are joint and several. That means if another borrower signs this agreement, we may recover money due and payable from any of you or from all of you. We may enforce this agreement in other ways against any of you or against all of you.

- 37 The lender may not act against the law. Our rights and powers are subject to legislation including the Fair Trading Act 1986, the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 and the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993. This means that we may not do anything that an Act of Parliament forbids and we must do the things it requires. For example if we had seized and sold consumer goods collateral to pay some of your debt, we could not afterwards charge you interest on the balance of that debt.

Explanations and Meaning.

- 38 Meaning – General

a. The expression “Accelerate” means requiring payment of all outstanding amounts up to the date of the acceleration, plus the amount of principal still outstanding that would have been due on dates after the acceleration date under the contract. “Accession” means goods that are affixed (attached) to other goods. “At risk” has the meaning set out in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph 38. “Borrowers” or “you” means the person(s) shown as borrower(s) and co-borrower(s) if any in the Disclosure Statement and includes their/your executors, administrators and successors in title – the people who may take over your rights and obligations if you die or if you cannot pay your debts. “Calculate” means to work out or to decide an amount following certain rules. “Collateral” means the goods and any other personal property described in the Disclosure Statement in the box headed “WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET

YOUR COMMITMENTS, Security Interest, Personal Property – Collateral” section and includes an interest in such goods or other personal property. “Consumer goods” means goods that are used or acquired for use primarily for personal, domestic, or household purposes – goods that are not mostly used in business or investment. “Default” under this agreement means that you do something you have agreed not to do or you fail to do something you have agreed are required to do. “Default Fees” and “Default interest” are as listed and described under “Default interest charges and default fees” in the Disclosure Statement. “Financial default” means that you have failed to pay an instalment or other amount when due. “Initial Unpaid Balance” is the amount you owe at the date of this agreement and it is further detailed in the CREDIT DETAILS of the Disclosure Statement. “Instalment” means a payment you must make regularly, usually on the same day of each week, fortnight or month. “Legal paper” means a document or a notice or other written paperwork about this agreement. “Lender” or “we” or any similar pronoun is the person lending the money and the expression includes its employees and agents and any person to whom the lender assigns its rights under this agreement or who otherwise takes over the lender’s rights. “Liability” means something you must do or an amount you must pay. If you are liable to do something or pay anything, it means you are responsible for doing or paying – you must do the thing or pay the amount. “Motor Vehicle” has the meaning given in section 57 of the PPSA. “Obligation” means something that you must do or that you must not do. “Person” and pronouns such as “anyone” or “somebody” include a body corporate (such as a company) and an unincorporated body (such as a partnership or trust). “PPSA” is the Personal Property Securities Act 1999. “Principal” is the initial unpaid balance before interest is charged and it is the unpaid balance on which interest is charged. When we charge interest and fees to your account they become part of the principal. “Repossess” includes the meaning “seize on your default whether or not for the first time”. “Unpaid balance” means the amount owing under this agreement at a particular time, being the difference between all amounts credited and all amounts debited to you under this agreement at that time. “Workman’s lien” means the type of charge that a workman has on somebody else’s goods when he does work on the goods. The workman may keep the goods until he is paid for the work and if he is not paid he may sell them. A mechanic will have a workman’s lien on your car if he does work on it at his garage. Any expression not described or defined in this agreement shall have the meaning given to it in the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 unless the context requires otherwise. Unless the context prevents it, the singular shall include the plural and vice versa and one gender includes others to the effect that, for example, “he” includes “they”, “she” and “it”.

- b. The expression “at risk” has same meaning as defined in section 83E(2) of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003. If goods are collateral must not:
- (i) destroy them (break them up),
 - (ii) damage them (spoil or harm them),
 - (iii) endanger them (put them in danger),
 - (iv) disassemble them (take them to pieces),
 - (v) remove them (move them from where you must keep them),
 - (vi) conceal them (hide them from us),
 - (vii) sell them or give them away to anyone else.

Nor may you allow any of those things to happen. If we reasonably suspect that you have done any of those things or allowed any of them to happen the goods will be at risk.

39 Additional explanation for Disclosure Statement. In this part, we tell you about the Disclosure Statement because some things may need to be explained better.

- a. Under the heading WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS - Security interest we talk about having a security interest in collateral as defined in section 17 of the Personal Property Securities Act 1999.
 - (i) That means that we have a security interest in the personal property described above (the collateral). Collateral is something you own that you promise to hand over to us if you do not pay your debt. For example, your motor car may be collateral for a loan. When that happens a lender has a “security interest” in your car. Sometimes people say that the collateral is “security” or the car is “the security” for the loan.

- (ii) That means that if you do not pay us money when you should, we may sell that collateral. If the collateral is your motor car, we may repossess it and sell it. We may instead apply to the court for an order for the car to be seized and sold. We may use the money from the sale to pay the money you owe us. The collateral is also security for other things which you have agreed to do as well as pay.
 - (iii) Sometimes collateral is consumer goods. If they belong to you then they would be goods that you use or obtain for use for personal, domestic or household purposes. A car you drive to and from work and which you do not use for work will usually be consumer goods. If you only use your lawnmower for mowing lawns at home it will be consumer goods. The television in your lounge is likely to be consumer goods. There are special rules for collateral that is consumer goods and we may not repossess them ourselves unless they are specifically identified in the agreement although there are some exceptions for replacements. These rules override everything else.
 - (iv) We may not take a security interest in some consumer goods unless we provided the money for you to buy them or took over hire purchase contract from a seller you bought them from. Those goods are “beds and bedding, cooking equipment including cooking stoves, medical equipment, portable heaters, washing machines and refrigerators”.
 - (v) We say that if we repossess and sell collateral you will owe us the difference between the net proceeds and what you owe us of the proceeds are less. For example if we repossess and sell a car for $3,500 and the costs of sale are $500, there will be $3,000 left. If you owe us $4,000 and we take off the $3000 you will owe us $1,000. You will still have to pay us that. If the collateral is consumer goods we may not charge interest and costs after sale.
 - (vi) However, if the bailiff were to seize and sell collateral consumer goods under a court order you would also have to pay interest and costs for the period after sale. In the example, that would be in addition to the $1,000.
- b. Under the heading WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS – Default interest charges and default fees – Default interest we talk about charging you interest on amounts which you do not pay in time such as instalments when they are due.
- What does this mean? If you do not pay an instalment on time it means you are in financial default and we may only charge default interest on that instalment. Even if we accelerate payment of the unpaid balance (call up the whole loan) because, for example, you miss paying a lot of instalments or otherwise default, we will charge default interest only on those unpaid instalments. If your instalments were $100 and the default interest rate were 35%, the default interest on each overdue instalment would be $35 per year. This is only an example and 35% may not be the default rate under this agreement.
- c. Under the heading WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS – Default interest charges and default fees Default fees we have a list of fees which you may have to pay on default. The last of them is a long paragraph which begins “In the case of enforcement, including Court or Disputes Tribunal proceedings.....” That means that you must pay us all the costs of our enforcing this agreement against you and we may claim from you whatever we spend in trying to get paid when you are in default.

40 Charge, Credit, Debit and Enforcement.

- a. “Charge”
 - “Charge” means a debit or an amount somebody must pay. If we charge you money or charge money to your account, that money is then added to the unpaid balance and the unpaid balance becomes larger. In this case “charge” and “debit” have similar meanings.
 - “Charge” has a second meaning used in this agreement. You may charge collateral and when you do that, they become security for you to pay the unpaid balance. If you give a security interest in a car, you charge the car.
- b. “Credit” has several meanings.

- (i) It is any money we lend you. This agreement is a contract about credit.
 - (ii) A credit fee is a fee we charge as part of giving you credit.
 - (iii) If you pay an instalment or make any payment to us we will credit your account with that instalment or payment and the unpaid balance will become smaller. In this meaning it is the opposite of “debit”.
 - (iv) A credit report is a study or a story about you and it is prepared or made to decide whether we give you credit or not.
 - (v) When we give you credit, it becomes a debit for you. When we lend you money, you must pay it back to us.
- c. “Debit” means a charge or an amount of money somebody must pay. If we debit money to you or debit money to your account, that money is then added to the unpaid balance and the unpaid balance becomes larger. In this case “charge” and “debit” have similar meanings.
- d. “Enforce” or “enforcement” means:
- (i) If we enforce against you:
 - (1) We do something to make you do what you agreed to do
 - (2) We do something so that we are paid when you do not pay
 - (ii) If we enforce against another borrower:
 - (1) We do something to make that borrower do what he agreed to do;
 - (2) We do something so that we are paid when that borrower does not pay
 - (iii) We may enforce by (for example):
 - (1) Going to court for a judgment against you or against the other borrower; or
 - (2) Applying to a Disputes Tribunal for an order against you or against the other borrower; or
 - (3) Repossessing collateral from you or from the other borrower and selling it.
